JULIO JANSEN

Football, Basketball and Korfbal are all included on the list of Julio Jansen's sports activities, and for each of these a separate article could be written. In each our sportin'ality of this week features very prominently. With Julio football seems to rate top priority, however, so we'll take a closer look at Julio as a footballer.

Sportin'ality

Our sportin'ality who was born in Aruba on December 20, 1928, started to play football in 1942 when he became a member of R.C.A.'s Junior team. In 1947 he left R.C.A. to play for Arsenal and when he returned to the Racing Club it was as a "Senior" and, by then

That same year Julio was among the AVB selection playing against Curacao, and since then he has been a "regular" in the island's All Star team.

Two years earlier, in 1948, while a member of Arsenal, Julio was one of the "re-inforcements" on the R.C.A. team which travelled to Haiti. He also played for R.C.A. in Guatemala in 1949 and in 1950 he visited Haiti for the second time with R.C.A. The following year, 1951, it was in B.G. that Julio helped defend R.C.A.'s colors and then, last month, Costa Rica saw him in action defending the Antillean colors.

In between Julio represented Aruba against Brazil's Bota Fogo and played as a Lago All Star'er against Curacao.

In B.G., Jansen thrilled the fans and his team in what up to last month was his best performance. With B.G. leading 1-0, he scored two sensational goals within 5 minutes to put his team in the lead.

This performance, which is still talked about was bettered in the recently completed Caribbean series. So outstanding was Julio's performance that he played in all of the Antilles' 6 matches. Of the total number of 17 goals scored by the Antilles, our sportin'ality scored 5 to make him runner-up for the record. Popo Godoy of Honduras beat him to it with 1 goal. Popo set the record with a total of 6.

Julio is very enthusiastic about the trip to Costa Rica and the people's hospitality. The memories of "outings" which rate first place with him are the trips to Haiti and Costa Rica.

Asked what he found especially beautiful or charming in Costa Rica, Julio answered the "Ojo de agua" "swimming pool and the girls". "Ojo de agua" is a natural well, shaped like a human eye from where the water flows into a swimming pool. The ever present group of girls at the pool make out the other part of the attraction.

Julio did not have much to say about his basket and korfbal activities. He is a member of the R.C.A. basketball team currently leading in the competition and ever since he joined the korfbal club TOF in 1948, he has been in the regular line-up. Those of us who follow the sport, know the reason. He's tops!

ARUBA FEELS SHOCK

Last (Palm) Sunday, residents of Aruba, particularly of San Nicolas and surrounding areas, had a sudden scare as a short, but very severe shock, believed to be an earthquake or some other natural disturbance, rocked their homes.

The shock, which lasted less than a minute, and came at 5.45 P.M., was preceded by a thunder-like sound.

In the San Nicolas Methodist Church, where a confirmation service was in progress, the Minister was just then relating the story of the crucifixion.

FAITH OF CRASH VICTIMS UNKNOWN; WRECKED PARTS OF CESSNA FOUND

As the week-end slipped by and the new week started, more disheartening news on the possible faith of the Cessna PJ-AAM and its occupants, reported missing since early last week, reached Aruba.

In the vicinity of Higuero, Venezuela, a floating wing was identified as that of the PJ-AAM which, it is believed, crashed approximately 20 miles south-east of Higuero on the trajet Barcelona-Curacao. Later reports that other wrecked parts, also belonging to the plane, were found, followed.

However, there was no sign of survivors and it was generally accepted at press time that the missing occupants of the plane, Messrs. Edward de Freitas (pilot), Oscar Nascimento, Eric Jardine, Joseph Castilho and Henry Abraham, have not survived the crash, although there are no witnesses and, consequently, no proof.

The victims were all employees of the Lago, employed in the operating department. They were on their way back to work after a short vacation in their native British Guiana. Some of the victims were married and fathers. They were all very popular in local sports and social circles.

To their sorrowing relatives THE LOCAL extends its sympathy.

CONSUL LACLE COLLECTS.

The final chapter in the $ 44,000 "Battle Of The Consuls" was written in the form of a check made out to the order of Mr. L. A. C. "Etty" Laclé, consul for Peru in Aruba.

The check was written, following verdict of a court in Panama, concerning ownership of the grand prize winning ticket in the Panamanian National Lottery drawing of November 9, 1952.

The dispute started here when Salvador Contreras, former Panamanian Consul in Aruba, sold the ticket to his colleague Laclé in good faith, with the understanding that Laclé, who had no money with him just then, would pay "later".

Before settlement took place, the drawing was held, and the ticket won the grand prize. Contreras demanded that Laclé return the the prize ticket, which the latter refused to do. He then suggested a 50—50 split, but to no avail. On claims that the ticket was stolen from him, Contreras then cabled a "stop payment" order to Panama, although he had not reported the alleged "theft" to the local police.

In February a court in Panama ruled in favor of Laclé. Last week the new Panamanian Consul in Aruba, Mr. De La Tonga announced that the Director of the Panamanian National Lottery had handed over to Mr. Aleman, Laclé's Lawyer, a check which makes "Ety" Laclé, an Aruban, $44,000 richer.

How fat a "slice" Lawyer Aleman will get, was not revealed. Consul Laclé, we understand, will not face legal difficulties here in Aruba for owning a "contraband" ticket, thanks to the flexibility in the text of the written law covering this matter.

SPORT BASEBALL

CHESTERFIELD SMOKE OUT HEINEKEN'S 8 TO 2.

Last Sunday morning at Lago Sport Park, Chesterfield, in an effort to finish high among the competitors of the 1952 Lago Sport Baseball Competition, scored an 8-2 victory over Heineken's.

In the bottom of the first, Paul grounded to short who fumbled, stole second and scored on Escalona's error behind the plate. The second and third innings yielded doubles for Chesterfield on five hits and three errors to lead 5-0. A HOME RUN — Baptist, Chesterfield's short stop and number 5 on the line-up blasted a fourth pitch to the left field fence which Schorea badly judged and gave Baptist time to make the rounds.

The fourth yielded another run when Bailey took a dead ball and scored from Lanoy's error on first. The fifth was blank and the sixth saw Bailey coming home from a walk on error.

The seventh gave Chesterfield their second zero and Heineken's took the opportunity to save the shut out in the top of the eighth when Maduro got a walk and scored on Schorea's single to center. Schorea stole second and came in on Stamper's liner over short.

Chesterfield closed the inning with a single by Van Heinegen who doubled to left and scored on error by first sacker, to lead 8-2.

A. Warner was winning pitcher while P. Maduro took the defeat.

It was surprising to see that Heineken's failed to make use of a bunt in the second inning when Lanoy singled advanced on a pass ball, Cornelio got a walk and they were both advanced on another pass ball, no outs, Stamper, Mariet and Maduro following at bat and failed to bring in the runners. Again in the fourth when Livingston got a walk and stole second with no outs.

LOCAL DEFEAT SEAGRAMS
V. O. (ORANJE)

As a result of the Sub-Committee's ruling on a continuation of the game between Local and Seagrams V.O., which was played last Sunday afternoon at the Lago Sport Park, Local scored a defeat over the toppers of the 1952 Baseball competition 6-4.

NO GAME LAST SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Last Saturday afternoon, Luther Pantophlet "Sailor Boy" was the lone umpire available at the Lago Sport Park to conduct the scheduled game between Coca Cola and Medical. Unfortunately, however, neither of the two teams was complete. It would have been an interesting game inasmuch as neither of the teams has yet scored a win.

GAMES THIS WEEK END.

There will be no baseball at the Lago Sport Park this week-end in view of the cricket match which will be played between St. Eustatius (Curacao) and St. Eustatius (Aruba). This is an annual competition which is played between these two teams.

The first match will be played today at 10.00 a.m. and the second will start tomorrow at 10.00 a.m. and continue on Monday.

It is expected a large crowd will attend and give the visitors a warm welcome.

PEP RECEIVES NEW RING LICENSE FROM NEW YORK.

Former World Featherweight champion Willy Pep was given a new license by the state Athletic Commission on Friday last, to fight in New York.

His license was taken from him after his foul-packed bout with Sandy Saddler on September 26th, 1951 in Madison Square Garden.

Besides his written application for reinstatement, Pep personally apologized to the commission for his conduct.

YOUNG OUTPOINTED DURANDO.

Paddy Young placed himself into an American middleweight title fight with Carl Olson Friday last by scoring a unanimous decision over rugged Ernie Durando in a bruising Madison Square Garden 12-rounder. Young weighed 160 to Durando's 157 $\frac{1}{4}$.

Cut over both eyes by the fourth round and rocked twice within the same span, Young came on like a prairie fire to win impressively in this fifth meeting of the two sluggers.

The scoring, all in favour of Young was: Referee Ruby Goldstein, 6-5-1; Judge Bert Grant, 7-5, and Judge Harold Barnes, 7-4-1. The AP scorecard had Young in front 9-3.

Young's hard-earned triumph was his third over the Bayonne, N. J., fighter and moved him into the final round of the NBA and New York commission's middleweight elimination tournament.

He won't be able to fight Olson for a while because of the gashes over his eyes and another one under his right eye. Durando was cut over and under his right eye.

Young was rocked by Durando's power-packed right in the second round and staggered in the fourth by another solid right to the chin.

But the enthusiastic flat-nosed started to take the steam out of Durando's wallops with searing left hooks to the body. From the sixth round on, it was all Young.

TURPIN-HUMEZ CLASH FOR "KING" SOLOMONS' CROWN

British Promoter Jack Solomons Monday announced the signing of England's Randy Turpin and France's Charles Humez for a "world" middleweight title fight in London, June 9, but he received no support from American boxing commissions.

"European title yes, world title no," said Bob Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission who also heads a joint board made up of himself and two NBA officials, George Barton and Abe J. Greene. Both Barton and Greene made similar statements.

Solomons, as a matter of fact, hasn't yet received approval of the White City Stadium 15-rounder as a "world" title bout from the British boxing board of control.

E. J. Waltham, secretary of the BBBC, said Solomons' application for the fight had been received. He said the board would decide at a meeting soon whether it should be considered a "world" title fight.

In New York, Christenberry said "when Mr. J. Onslow Fane, chairman of the BBBC, was in New York recently, it was stated very plainly and definitely that a Humez-Turpin fight would not be given world title recognition. There was no misunderstanding.

"We expect that Paddy Young and Carl Olson will meet for the American championship," added Christenberry. "We would like the winner to fight the Humez-Turpin winner for the world championship. If Young Olson do not want to fight each other we will take appropriate action."

A high London source said he felt sure that the question of the world's middleweight title, left open when Ray Robinson retired, would be settled at a May 3 meeting in Paris of the heads of the leading boxing commissions.

Christenberry will attend the meeting and represent the joint board of New York and the NBA. Fane will appear for the BBBC and a member from France will represent the continental fight boards.

Turpin, former world's middleweight champion, currently holds the British, British Empire and European 160-pound championship. His European crown will be at stake against Humez.

WALCOTT-MARCIANO NEXT FRIDAY

The ridiculous assumption of Britain's promoter Jack Solomons that the winner of the Humez-Turpin fight will be universally recognized as Ray Robinson's successor as middleweight world champ, rated second only to the interest displayed in the return bout between Rocky Marciano, heavyweight champion of the world, and "Ancient-man" Jersey Joe Walcott, in the U.S. this week.

The match is slated to take place in Chicago next Friday, April 10. Odds which were not officially quoted are expected to run about even.

They added that Jersey Joe, a veteran, certainly has more tricks up his sleeve than the comparatively "New" Marciano. They prefer a clean fight, however.

Walcott, said his stable, seems to be "suffering" from perpetual youth and at 39 looked better in training than ever before. His left jab is currently rated with Joe Louis' in his prime, and his legs are as perfect as his general condition.

There is little news from Rocky's quarters where it seems to be accepted for a fact that Walcott cannot break the jinx and Rocky's t.n.t. is sure to prove it.

DOCTORED WHISKEY IMPORTED IN VENEZUELA

According to an article in Venezuela's "La Esfera" last Saturday, authorities in the country had found a trail which suggests large scale gangster operations in Venezuela and other South American places.

Official sources, said La Esfera, revealed that an estimated 40,000 bottles of doctored whiskey have been imported into the country recently, with a total financial set-back to trade and population of over Bs. 1 million.

Investigation by authoritative sources, the publication said, have brought to light that several brands of whiskey have been doctored in Mexico City and shipped to Central and South America via Los Angeles. Among these are "White Horse" and "Old Par". The horse on the label of the doctored White Horse bottle differs from the authentic one in that only two legs are visible; the "curve" shown in the tail is much higher; the eyes are invisible; the finish of the engraving is much rougher; and the labels are printed in a different color. Similar falsifications are evident on the "Old Par" labels. In addition, the whiskey tastes unpleasant.

In order to determine whether these Scotch Whiskeys have been doctored, the British Embassy in Caracas has forwarded samples to England with the request to have same analyzed.

La Esfera said that the Venezuelan authorities are of the opinion that this contraband trade is run by a powerful unit of international racketeers who market the products in South American ports. USA's Frank Costello, big-time gambler, writes the publication, is suspected of having a hand in the matter.

VICTIMS OF SADIST FOUND BY SCOTLAND YARD

Scotland Yard detectives Saturday found the bones of a fifth woman victim of a sex-mad sadist of Notting Hill buried beneath a forsythia bush in the back garden.

The discovery confronted officials with the possibility that still more bodies may be hidden around the apartment where five victims have been found since Tuesday.

Authorities began digging up the garden and ordered the entire apartment searched anew and ceilings pulled down.

Every available detective in Greater London was assigned to hunt for John Reginald Christie, 55, amateur photographer specializing in nudes, in whose two-and-one-half room apartment the bodies were found.

Those of his 45-year-old wife and three women in their 20s were discovered boarded up in the wall and floor.

Digging Saturday police found charred human bones. The remains included part of torso, a leg and arm joint. The head is missing.

The first victim was believed to have been strangled four months ago and three others a month apart thereafter. Christie occupied the apartment 15 years. A new tenant discovered the bodies.

Police said postmortem evidence indicated all the women were murdered by a sadist.

MOSCOW.

The government announced an amnesty decree under which all persons serving five years or less in prisons, corrective labor camps and other places of detention will be freed, provided such persons were not sentenced for counter-revolutionary crimes, large scale theft or embezzlement of public property, gangsterism or premeditated murder.

Persons serving more than five years will have their sentences reduced by half, and some prisoners will be freed regardless of the length of their sentences. Included in this group are women with children ten years old or less, pregnant women, minors under 18, men over 55 and women over 50 and those suffering from incurable illnesses.

Prosecution will be halted meanwhile in all cases falling into these categories and in cases in which the major sentence would be five years or less.

This amnesty was made possible through a decrease in crime and by the consolidation of the Soviet State system. The Justice Ministry was ordered to re-examine the criminal laws of the country and to recommend changes.

This was the second amnesty proclaimed by the Soviet Union since world war two.

VATICAN

The Pope has urged Catholics pastors to guard their flocks from the ravages of "the enemy". The enemy", he warned, seems to be one but he is multiple."

Vatican sources said that Pope's use of the world "enemy" referred to Atheist, Communism, and also to other modern threats against the Church.

The Pontiff recalled that he had again warned against "the enemy" in his speech of last October 12 when he told more than 150,000 members of Italian men of Catholic action that the "enemy" sought to make Christ a stranger to the world.

The Pope spoke to Lenten preachers and pastors of Rome in the Vatican's Consistorial Hall on Saturday last.

He said "as soon as we recovered our strength, we hastened to call you about us to speak with you more with our hearts than our lips."

The audience was one of the few the Pope has thus far held since his serious ailment that confined him to bed more than two months ago.

BERLIN.

On Tuesday, a conference was held at the Soviet Control Commission office at Karlshorst on Tuesday between British and Russian officials to study air safety in divided Germany.

The meeting was arranged at the suggestion of Soviet General Vassily Chukov to discuss how air incident in the three Allied air corridors over the Russian Zone and at the shooting down of a British Lincoln Bomber on March 12, can be avoided.

GERMANY.

Chancellor Adenauer addressing the youth section of the Christian Democratic Party this week remarked that the new Kremlin rulers had recently caused world-wide flutters with what sounded like tentative peace feelers.

The Chancellor said, "In my opinion, there is only one possible policy toward Russia, that is: first, that every genuine peace feeler must be investigated and grasped. Second, we must remember that the temptation for Soviet policy to do something else than seek peace that is, to embark on some adventure is so strong that the West must continue unswervingly its policy of building up its defences. That is the only way for us." and the European Defence Community is part of this building-up.

It is an instrument to secure peace in every direction.

By joining Germany and France in an European army, we would also prevent any future war between our two countries a war which would destroy Europe for all time."

B. W. I. A. MEETS.

The first meeting of the British West Indian Association under the newly elected management was held at the St. George's Hall on Thursday night, March 26th.

The evening's business began with the installation of officers by Mr. J. E. Hazelwood, after which the new president, Mr. E. A. Bailey, outlined the aims and goal of the Association for the coming year. He ended his speech with Winston Churchill's famous exhortation: "Let us go forward together."

After the other officers had addressed the house, the meeting went on with general business, reviewing among other things the plans for celebration locally of the Coronation, and suggestions for the improvement of the association. The house also unanimously passed a message of sympathy to H. M. Queen Elizabeth on the death of the Dowager Queen Mary.

Next meeting of the association will be on April 9th.

BUSTIN ON VISIT.

Arriving in Aruba last Saturday on a two weeks visit was Mr. G. T. Bustin, popular radio missionary of Haiti. Mr. Bustin, who has great zeal for the missionary cause, has recently returned from a visit to New Guinea where he had previously done some missionary work. He has published a book on his experiences in that territory, the title: "Adventuring with God in the Wilds of New Guinea."

Mr. Bustin, who has a large radio following in Aruba, paid his first visit here a year ago and was warmly received by the congregation of the Pentecostal (Jackson's) Church, to whom he ministered during his short stay.

Mr. Bustin will again minister to the needs of the above mentioned church during his present visit. He plans to leave for the U.S.A. on April 12th.

In the end Harries and his men find themselves obliged to climb over the lockdoor. They understand that Rob must be somewhere in the tunnel, for they have seen his empty boat floating. Harries orders the work to be stopped at once. When the noise of the drills and the pneumatic hammers has died down he cries out: "Men, a spy has entered the tunnel, a rottener who intends to blow up the tunnel. It is a very sly scoundrel, that we must lay hands on at any price. Everybody must help. The fellow is no doubt disguised as a workman, but of course he has no identity-papers." The workmen scared for their lives spread in the tunnel-corridors. Rob, who has been hiding sees Harries disappear in a side-alley. He may go to the spot where Marga and Willy are kept prisoner. Rob decides to follow him in at a safe distance.
